"MUDDY WATERS" (Continued from Page 1) ing funds—$3,150,000 for the biennium—is in the recommendation that for the General Revenue Fund. This gives the flood control program a double barrel shot at the money. The tax to be raised by the oil sales would be used to repay the general fund for monies expended on flood control.

It is disquieting to see our Governor so besieged by office seekers that he doesn't seem to have time to check over his press releases, or to have some competent publicity man scan it.

Unless the Governor is lacking woefully in legislative acumen—and a majority of the voters in the second primary evidently thought he did—somebody mistook when gubernatorial proposals for a 2 mill ad valorem tax were publicized, for experienced legislators know that this proposition would certainly be "the kiss of death" for flood control.

Now comes the Governor and attempts to chastise HIS COMMITTEE on Flood Control for a recommendation, and the Governor and HIS COMMITTEE are at variance as to who will pay the proposed tax.

HIS COMMITTEE was asked by him to make suggestions; it did and passed unanimously its 2 mill proposal and submitted one of its own—the oil tax.

There are really THREE important groups in running the State. The legislature is a necessary cog for enacting laws, the Governor must go along by signature and administration, and the CABINET keeps its finger in all phases of administration. The cogs that drive the wheels of the State of Florida must mesh without to much grinding.

May we humbly suggest to Fuller that he take his secretarial staff into the Big Board room and make speeches to them before he turns the new boys loose for there's some funny stories coming out about flood control—and WE KNOW YOU'RE FOR FLOOD CONTROL.

GENEROUS SHOWER (Continued from Page 1) resu has employed an auctioneer to conduct sales. This auction market will not interfere with the customary auctions held at the old established packing plants of the area.

William A. Reich, president of the United Fruit and Vegetable Association has warned the railway carriers that they are "playing with fire" when they attempt to place unreasonable tariffs on the produce growers and handlers. He claims the railway from a financial situation need the fruit and vegetable business, and therefore cannot bleed the goose that lays the golden egg. Growers need rail service and will patronize it so long as profits do not all go to the railways.

All the big associations have gone on record condemning the continuance of federal taxes on transportation.

The recent conventions of the National League and the United Fruit Growers in Pittsburgh and Chicago were outstanding, and actions brought out many things tending to protect and build up of the trade. Programs were considered and adopted that will give both units, or in combination, power and ammunition to fight against the many unfavorable hazards facing the business, mostly from rail rates and government impositions. There are not many differential barriers existing in, and the aims of the two branches, and the proposed combination of forces is reported as gaining favorable consideration.

Brown's Bass Still Holds First Place in Local Fishing Contest
"Jack" Brown's five and a quarter pound bass still leads in the February contest conducted by Farrish and Davis, but that is small in comparison to the 10 1-4 one caught by that Tennessee guide in January.

Solly Corbin states that a number of seven pound fish were weighed in at his dock Sunday and Monday, but they being visiting fishermen they did not bother to enter them in the contest.

According to the February issue of Wildlife, A. W. Rountree, of Gainesville, has captured a record sized black bass out of Kanapaha lake which tipped the scales at 17 pounds and ten ounces. This fish is claimed to be the largest fish of its type caught in Florida waters in a quarter of a century. It was entered in the Field and Stream contest, for the Florida division. Rountree states that he had the time of his fishing life in battling the big fellow.

The largest bass of record caught out of Lake Okeechobee was caught by a Mr. Weeks, of Belle Glade, some 14 years ago.

OBSERVATIONS
 a member of the building committee of all three. The Rev. Les Mossey said, "I never knew so constant a church attendant as Washington."

What he practiced before the public, he likewise practiced in private. The day was begun and ended with family devotions—the reading of the Bible and personal prayer. In his writings occur 80 different names for God.

Two documents reveal as nothing else a man's inner self: his diary and will. In his diary his two most frequent entries refer to church attendance and Bible study and prayer. In his will, item one reads, "I leave my personal Bible, which have used for years in my own personal devotions, to the Reverend Byron Lord Fairfax" (this pastor).

He stood foursquare against the most flagrant sins of his time — profanity, gambling, drunkenness. He lived like a Christian, he talked like a Christian, he died like a Christian.

The last audible words from his lips were to his "Father, take me to thyself."
 —Elmer Ellsworth Helms

A real circus for Belle Glade will indeed be a great event for will indeed be a great event for children. A good wholesome circus is an education for anyone.

Dutch Wallis, city clerk, figured up that if the recent carnival had paid regular license fees as an independent show, rather than a sponsored affair, the fees would have amounted to around the $4,000 mark.

With the exception of two off nights, the Belle Glade Glads, have been playing some mighty good basketball, and have chance for a good rating in the conference standings. As the season is near over, the same players will be conditioning themselves on the basketball diamond. Two defeats over Pahokee more than pleased the basketball fans.

put a "must" on the calendar for at least one visit to the Palm Beach Fair Exhibit at Morrison Field. This event has been growing each year and this year it promises to be something well worth patronage. Our Glades will give visitors an idea of some of the things we raise, and pending improvements for the region.

Understand that there has been a movement on in American Legion Posts to set up a new district in the counties surrounding Lake Okechobee, at Okeechobee, Moore Haven, Clewiston, Belle Glade, Pahokee and Canal Point; thus affording a central location for district meetings instead of traveling far for such events. So far Canal Point has voted against it, and other lake region Posts are against separation from the present parent body.

What looked like a lean tourist season a few months ago, is now turning into an avalanche of winter tourists into Florida. Where east coast cities were down hearted there now exists a spirit of much satisfaction. Cold weather in the north, and reading about our perfect Florida weather, was the stimulus which sent the "snow birds" down to Florida. With the exception of about three gloomy days, South Florida has had perfect summer weather conditions, where all could bask in this sultry climate.

When you have trouble questions, there is always a source to which you can go to get trouble assistance. If sought out, Monty Graw, that bustling director for the Florida Vegetable Committee, says that such assistance can be secured from his office in Orlando, upon request. If information is not available, it would be supplied.

After seeing several of the collection of movie films being presented by the State Highway Patrol, at a Safety measure, one can conclude that accidents are caused by the negligence of drivers, and not altogether from machine deficiencies. People should study their traffic books, and be willing to recognize each driver's responsibility.

There ought to be a branch office of the Animal League out here in the Glades, with an officer who has authority of action, when he finds mistreatment of animals, especially dogs. People who have animals and do not give them humane treatment, should be made to pay the penalty. Dogs need food, water and room enough for reasonable exercise, and not be chained up so close that they are in constant misery day and night, likewise the neighborhood.

Our local merchants took opportunity of making quite a creditable display at the Veteran's fair, consisting of electrical equipment, farm equipment, farm products, and school exhibit. Next year the Fair management expects to enlarge this feature. The Future Farmers had a display of 72 types of seed which were grown in their projects.

Spectators were much interested in the Markham honey exhibit, and that Blue Ribbon from the State Fair at Tampa added to the interest.

A reported light harvest of sugar cane will bring the season operations to a close a bit earlier than customary. Some cane being cut under whitewash harvesting, where flood waters and pests had close losses.

President Henry O. Earwood, of the Chamber of Commerce, plainly states that unless more membership subscriptions come into the office, that there will of necessity be curtailment in the operations of the office. The Chamber is the clearing house for the city and its public information bureau, and performs duties which no progressive town can be without. Why not write out that check for membership and help the Chamber along?

Indiantown along Jupiter Road Has Many Fine Farms

The Indiantown section of Martin county, especially that portion lying along the Indiantown-Jupiter highway, is growing in importance as a farm producing section, and it is interesting to travel along and see the extensive improvements which are being conducted there.

Hinson Brothers have lands which they are using in cultivating tobacco plants for the Georgia, Carolina and Alabama plantings. The Indiantown Development has 1000 acres under water control, which is to be diversified vegetable crops. Warren Crabbe and Elder Bowling also have extensive plantings. J. T. Fuqua, former Canal Point operator, has his farm plots there, and right now is picking prime tomatoes and squash which he saved from the recent freeze. The Per Beach vegetable and cattle land is also on this road, and the novelist, is making a show place out of a part of his holdings.

Golden Rams Close Basketball Season With Vero Beach Loss

The basketball season in the Gulf Stream conference came to a close at Vero Beach, Friday night, so far as the Rams are concerned, and for the second time this season the Rams bowed to a stronger team, losing by a score of 55 to 38. Out of ten games played the Rams chalked up seven wins and three losses, showing two at Vero Beach and one to South Broward which gives them a pretty good rating in conference standings.

The Rams will have a position in the Gulf Stream tournament at Ft. Lauderdale, playing the winner of the pairing game between Pahokee and Miami Tech on Thursday afternoon.

Other games played over the week end were as follows: Delray, 35 Redlands, 33; Stuart, 36, Com. 28; Lakewood, 32; Bognino, 75; Pahokee, 32 Ft. Pierce, 30.

TUBELESS TIRE CROSS-SECTION

The construction of the new puncture-sealing tubeless tire is shown in this cross-section. The special concentric ridges molded on the beads seal the tire against the rim and prevent air from getting out around the edges while rubber washers inside and outside the valve keep the air from escaping that way. The sealant on the inner side of the tread area, a thick, gummy rubber, gives the tire its puncture-sealing qualities. The B. F. Goodrich Company has announced that the tire is now available here for the first time.

This self-sealing tubeless tire is made only by B. F. GOODRICH and is now on sale at our station. We give a liberal trade in allowance for your old tires.
